Qualifying underway for upcoming Democratic primary

The Coffee County Democratic Executive Committee met Saturday morning to begin qualifying candidates for the various offices up for election during the current political year. Also on the agenda was the selection of officers for the county executive committee.

Named to head the party organization within the county was current chairman, Jackson W. (Bill) Stokes. Mark Jordan of Enterprise was named vice chairman. Jean Spurlin was re-elected to the office of treasurer and John W. Sharpless will again serve as secretary.

The committee is accepting candidates for all seven commission seats, the Probate Judge, three school board seats (two existing and one new) and constables. Qualifying fees are as follows: Judge - $800, commissioners - $300, school board - $50 and constable - $25.

Probate Judge Marion Brunson is the only person to qualify in that position. He was the first person to put forth the qualifying fees Saturday morning but was quickly followed by a host of candidates. In all Saturday there were twelve candidates who qualified Saturday.

There are seven commission seats in Coffee County and incumbents face election at the same time. Two of the incumbents have qualified this year as Republicans and will seek re-election as full fledged Republicans. They are Sid Averett, District 6 and Bill Faulk, District 7. Both are Enterprise residents.

District 1 has drawn the most interest, with four candidates, including the incumbent seeking the seat. Commissioner James E. (Jimmy) Bryan Jr. is being challenged by Jim DuBoise, F. Doug Harrelson and Leon Smart. Smart has been a candidate previously and the other two are newcomers to the political arena.

Billy Egerton is facing no opposition at press time as he reaches for his third term on the county commission in District 2.

Robert Stephens, the incumbent in District 3 is challenged by Elba City Council member Malcolm Davis. Davis was appointed to fill the vacant seat on the city council when Stephens was named by Governor Wallace to the county commission.

Eugene Bradley is the incumbent commissioner in District 4. He is seeking re-election and is challenged by former commissioner Marvin Bowden. Bradley has served two terms and was unopposed four years ago.

District 5, the one that stretches from just outside Elba through New Brockton and into Enterprise is presently held by first time commissioner Damascus Cittinger Jr. He has qualified for re-election and at press time is unopposed.

District 6 will not have a Democratic incumbent running, as he switched to the Republican Party. Presently only Wendell Hughes is running for the Democratic nomination in that district.

Number 7 does not have a Democratic candidate at press time, again because of the incumbent changing to the Republican Party.

Three seats on the Coffee County School Board will be selected this year also. Two incumbents will be up for re-election if they choose to seek another term. Harold Carroll and Bill Boland are winding down their terms, again because of the incumbent changing to the Republican Party.

The other seat up before the voters this year is an additional seat, one of two opened up as a settlement of a federal court suit. It will have the same district lines as the County Commission District 5. Ruben McKinnon qualified this week for the seat. Another seat on the board will open up at a later date to continue the policy of staggered terms for school board members.

Both county commissioners and school board members will be elected this year under a new plan whereby the candidates are voted on only by the registered voters who live in their respective districts.

Marion Brunson, who is seeking his second term in the office of Probate Judge, will see the duties of the office change at the beginning of the next administration. Regardless of who is elected in November that position, the Probate Judge will no longer serve as chairman of the county commission. The court decree that settled a federal lawsuit and increased the commissioners to seven also decreed they would select their own chairman from the elected commissioners. That will take effect the day the newly elected commissioners take office.

Potential Democratic officeholders have until April 8th to qualify with the Coffee County Democratic committee.

Commission plans grant

A public hearing concerning plans to apply for a federal grant was held at Monday's meeting of the Coffee County Commission, and after hearing a representative from the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning and Development Commission (SEARDC) explain the procedure used to determine the amount of money that could be received for any one project, agreed to study the application at great length and not finalize the application until a meeting to study each individual project on the application.

SEARDC representative Jack Griffith explained to the commission that when it filed an application for a CANDIDATES WAIT IN LINE . . . The Coffee County Democratic Party opened qualifying for the June primary last Saturday morning and candidates filled up a portion of the courthouse in Elba awaiting their turn at signing the papers. The candidates continued to file papers this week and it looks like a heated election is heading county voters' way!

Commissioners Averett & Faulk switch to Republican Party

The Coffee County Commission became a two-party board last week when commissioners Sid Averett and Bill Faulk both announced that they had left the Democratic Party and qualified to seek re-election as members of the Alabama Republican Party.

Both incumbents will appear on the November general election ballot in the county commission races and face any Democratic challengers that qualify and are chosen during the June Democratic primary.

In making his announcement, Commissioner Averett stated, "The Democratic Party left me a long time before I decided to leave the Democratic Party."

The majority of the people in this state resent party leaders telling them who they can and can't vote for," said Averett, "and I feel the Democratic Party is destroying itself."

"I feel the goals of the Republican Party are more worthy to pursue and I think a candidate for public office has a much better future as a member of a party on the move than one going backwards."

"I feel good about running as a Republican and running on my record as a county commissioner. I seek the Republicans, Democrats and independents to give me their support and help return me to a seat on the commission."

Commissioner Bill Faulk stated that he felt he could best serve the people of his district and all Coffee County as a Republican and reported, "We have a Republican governor in this fine state and I think I can get more done for Coffee County as a fellow Republican."

"Back when we had a Democratic governor we also had legislators who carried a lot of clout at the capitol, but with a Republican now in the governor's office, I feel times have changed and I have changed with them."

"I began to have a falling out with the heads of the Democratic Party back months ago," stated Faulk, "and when party leaders can tell fellow officeholders what to do and what to say, I can't go along with it."

"I'm not about to go and say all Democrats are bad or evil -- I simply studied the matter at great length and decided that at my age I couldn't lead the move to change the Democratic Party back to its place of prominence, so I decided to join the Republican Party and work with the state officials and try to get as much done for Coffee County as possible."

Both Faulk and Averett are in their first terms on the commission and serve Districts 6 and 7.

City Council opens bids on fire equipment

The Elba City Council met Monday at 5 p.m. with two members absent. Council members Jack Prescott and Francis Williams were not present. Due to the late arrival of council members the meeting was about 15 minutes late in starting. The lateness of the starting time was of little concern however, as the business scheduled for discussion was very light.

Council members opened bids on some fire department equipment and approved payment of monthly bills. That, plus some informative discussions, was the limit of the business of the day, Monday, March 14, 1988.

The fire department had requested the city to take bids on fire coats and pants for 22 firemen. They will be paid for from the county tobacco tax money that is earmarked for fire departments. Three bids were returned; however, a firm called Sunbelt Fire submitted a "no bid."

The apparent successful bidder was Harry Harless Co., with a bid of $5,980. The only other bid was by 10-4 and was for $6,255.50. The council voted to accept the low bid if it met the specifications of the bid request. This would be decided by fire department officers who had worked up the bid requests.

Bills totaling $13,400.16 were approved for payment. Mayor Bob English noted that seven items made up over $9,000 of this total. They were tires, sewer solvent, truck repair, asphalt, sewer pipe, lawnmower repair and insurance.

English told council members that the term of Dr. Bill Cowart on the Elba School Board had expired and he didn't desire to be re-appointed. An appointment for this position will be made at the next council meeting, according to English, and he wanted council members to be prepared with recommendations.

Also a priority for paving of city streets will be set up at the next meeting and English urged the council members to check out the city streets and be prepared for this decision.

There is no state money available for sidewalk work, English told the council and the proposal for getting state help on putting a sidewalk up Claxton Avenue will have to be done with city funds.

Police Chief John White told the council his department had stopped the rash of burglaries in the Dorsey parking lot with the arrest of three juveniles.

County board hears court update

The Coffee County Board of Education held its regular scheduled monthly meeting on Monday, March 14, at 7 p.m. in Elba and heard reports on three lawsuits involving the board.

Attorney Jim Weatherford stated that the Dillard case, which resulted in the board going to a seven-member panel, was over as far as the county was concerned, and reported that while the case was still legally pending.

Farmers' Livestock Co-op ranked tops

The sales figures for livestock in the state of Alabama were released recently, and topping the list of 14 selling points in the state for the sale of hogs was the Farmers' Livestock Co-op, located in Elba and managed by Chris Sessions.

"We have always sold a lot of hogs and feeder pigs here in Elba because we try to treat everyone fair and treat them like we appreciate their business - because we do," stated Sessions.

"There are 14 hog markets in the state and the closest one to Elba is in Opp. Last year we sold 33,688 hogs at the co-op, while Abbeville ranked second with total sales of 24,000. There aren't as many producers as in years past, but the number of hogs is steady and I expect the numbers to go up slightly this summer."

"We have several hog producers in Coffee County and across south Alabama," added Sessions, "while we have farmers from Montgomery County and all the way up to the state line that will bring their hogs to the sales. The biggest buyers of the feeder pigs come from Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and of course, Alabama. The local stockyard is tops in hog sales, it ranks down the list in sales of cattle and Sessions reported that in coming months it is hoped that the cattle market will increase."

"We sold a total of 12,000 cattle last year," reported Sessions, "and we are trying to build a good market for cattle in this area. There is a good market for cattle and we hope that soon we can be a source for area cattlemen to buy and sell their stock."

Many stockyards are individually owned and operated. The local facility is owned by over 1,500 members of the Farmers' Livestock Co-op, and at the end of the year the members share the profits with dividends.

"We're one of the few cooperatives in the area," stated Sessions, "and we feel that by being a co-op the sellers and producers both know that we're going to be fair and treat them like the owners of the co-op would like to be treated, because many of the producers are farmers too."

COLORED BACKGROUND

BRAINSTORMS

By Ferrin Cox

The Alabama legislature is taking the week off and that ain't all bad. Presently they are in the middle of a power play with the governor, and apparently it is just a Democrat vs. Republican battle, something we have absolutely no use for at all. It ain't unusual for us to get upset with our lawmakers for their self-serving votes, but at times like this it is worse. If we could find anything positive in all this it would be that while they are battling this, they aren't passing a bunch of laws that we can't live with at all.

We were surprised when it became apparent that Coffee County would have a bunch of political candidates from both the Democrat and Republican parties running in local politics. Even more surprising was the fact that two incumbent county commissioners would jump the fence and become Republicans. Both Commissioners Sid Averett and Bill Faulk have officially become Republicans and will be seeking re-election on that party's ticket.

We had a lawyer complain about a broken water meter cover this week. He noted it was in the middle of the sidewalk and someone could get hurt. He wanted us to report the matter because having city hall badmouth one of us was enough! Well, we did it and will accept the badmouthing if that is what it takes to get the job done.

The wife of Sen. Jimmy Clark of Eufaula was killed this week in a car wreck near her home town of Eufaula. We cry with her friends but this again points out that none of us is invincible. Regardless of our importance to our family, our state or this world, we are still humans and subject to the same life-threatening dangers.

Spring is just around the corner, in spite of the cold we are getting this week. We are having a bad case of fishing itch that needs to be scratched and we plan to apply a good liberal coat of the proper medicine right away. We also need some good reports to pass on to our readers; however, news of events such as the fish-off between the two local bass clubs this past weekend ain't gonna be enough. They had a competition between the two and caught about 70 pounds of fish. With all those big boats and fancy rigs, we thought these experts could do better.

Saying nice things about these dedicated fishermen, we salute their efforts to improve the fishing in Pea River. On a regular basis, they bring fish they have caught elsewhere and release them in Pea River. You and I can help by again turning these fish loose when we catch them. A year or two of adding fish and allowing time to spawn should be a big plus for Pea River.

People are busy trying to figure out what it means when certain candidates either do well or don't do well in the various presidential primaries. Well, we don't know more than anyone else but most of us agree that those who are getting virtually no votes would be better off on the creek bank fishing. Actually we like the statement reportedly made in the local courthouse during a recent change of venue hearing. A woman told the lawyers she didn't like any of the candidates and might stay home and not vote. Well, we voted and will vote next time, but we aren't real happy with the choices either.

Little Miss Elba Pageant Set March 26

The 1988 Little Miss Elba Pageant will be held on Saturday night, March 26, at 7 o'clock at the Elba High School auditorium with a total of 18 girls competing.

Admission to the pageant will be $3 adults and $2 students (student tickets available at school only). The pageant is sponsored by the Elba Athletic Club.

Little Miss Elba Practice Set For March 22

The first practice for the Little Miss Elba Pageant will be on Tuesday night, March 22, at 7 p.m. at the Elba High School auditorium. Attendance at the practice is required!

Davis Qualifies For District 3 Post On County Commission

Malcolm Davis, a lifelong resident of Coffee County, announced this week that he had qualified to seek a post on the Coffee County Commission from District 3 in the upcoming Democratic primary.

"If elected I'll work for all the people of my district and Coffee County and won't be hard to find," declared Davis. "I have worked across this county for many years and the people of this fine county know me and know what I stand for. I am for better roads, churches and schools and will work for anything that can make this county a better place to live and raise a family."

Many people think that county commissioners are simply road commissioners," stated Davis, "and while it is true that roads are a highly visible part of the county, not many people realize just what a big business Coffee County really is. I've been involved in the tractor business for many years and I know what it takes to be successful in business and the same is true for the business of county government."

"I won't make any promises," added Davis, "but I will promise to do what's right and stand behind whatever I do. I know the needs of all the people of Coffee County and realize that in serving this district I'll be serving residents that live in the city as well as in the rural areas of the county."

"I'll work hard for the people out in the county and do my best to see that their roads are in good shape and serve the cities and provide help whenever possible. Like I said, I'll serve all the people of Coffee County."

Davis attended school in Elba and later served in the Navy during World War II. He is married to Margaret Davis and they have four children - Peggy Heilman, Patsy Miller, Pamela Bedsole and Max Davis.

active, it was settled and as far as the board was concerned it had met all requirements.

A suit dealing with the transfer of students across district lines was also discussed and as in the case involving re-districting Weatherford reported the county was all but out of the case. The attorney stated that the case originated in another county, but grew to include other south Alabama counties and the Coffee County School System was added.

The attorney added that all papers had been filed and a settlement had been agreed on.

A suit involving Bob Andrews, assistant principal at Zion Chapel High School, was discussed and the board was told that a pre-trial hearing was set for March 24. The suit alleges that Andrews was qualified for a principal's position in the system, but was passed over and is expected to go to court in May.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission:

- heard Marvin Martin speak on behalf of the Christian Mission Center in Enterprise, and inform the commission of plans to raise $20,000 to construct a building;
- approved the transfer of Sara Strong to the Kinston Elementary School to replace Donna White;
- employed Sandra Parker as an aide at New Brockton Elementary School;
- employed Trent Taylor as head football coach at Kinston High School;
- employed Jerry Brown as temporary maintenance employee to work at all schools across the county;
- agreed to accept a student at New Brockton High School, pending a juvenile hearing;
- was told the AIDS classes at all three high schools had been accepted and was well received and approved a similar class for all sixth-graders;
- delayed presentation of a policy on communicable diseases until the April meeting;
- was told the Saturday detention schools were off to a good start at all three high schools;
- was informed that the special education review had been completed and that the county had received three citations, two of which were expected;
- was informed that renovation projects at schools was going smoothly, and discussed paving the parking lot at Kinston High School with aid from the county commission;
- was told junior students were going to take classes in preparation for the ACT test;
- was told the county was in good financial shape; and
- discussed the proposed tax plan introduced that would provide additional funding for schools through a flat income tax rate.

State Wins Lawsuit To Construct First Veterans Home

On Tuesday, February 16, 1988, the Montgomery Circuit Court ruled that Governor Guy Hunt properly released $2.25 million in State funds for the construction of a State Veterans Home. This State money will be used to acquire $5 million in Federal matching funds. The State Veterans Home will be the first such home for the State of Alabama and will have a 150-bed capacity. It will be constructed in Alexander City, AL, on 15 acres of prime wooded property donated by the City. It will serve veterans statewide who are in need of long-term skilled nursing care.

The plaintiffs in the case were various private nursing homes located in Tallapoosa County. These private nursing homes contended that the construction of a State Veterans Home by the State would be illegal and would cause the private nursing homes to incur operating losses. After a trial on the merits, however, the Court ruled that the expenditure was legal and properly released and that the State Veterans Home should go forward.

Currently 36 other States in the United States already have one or more State Veterans Homes. All of these homes were constructed with Federal matching funds and constitute a great benefit to the veterans of the various States.

The Alabama Veterans Home will offer a wide range of programs and services to meet the special needs of the veteran and his family.

Tax Law Changes Concerning Dependent Children

Children under the age of 14 may find that the Tax Reform Act of 1986 changes the income taxes they pay in 1987 on unearned income, according to Philip J. Sullivan, Alabama District Director of Internal Revenue Service.

Unearned income is income such as interest, dividends, and other investment income. In certain cases, the law now requires the child to pay taxes on earned income. However, if the child's own tax rates are higher than the tax results from using the parents' tax rates, then the tax is computed using the child's tax rates.

In general, unearned income in excess of $1,000 is taxed at the parents' highest marginal rates. However, the $1,000 threshold is raised by the amount of any itemized deductions directly connected to the unearned income, but only to the extent these itemized deductions exceed $500. These itemized deductions include expenses such as custodial fees, investment fees, and brokerage fees.

For instance, if a dependent child under the age of 14 has interest income of $1,700 from a savings account, $700 of that interest will be taxed to the child at the highest marginal tax rate of the parents. The child will pay tax on $500 of the interest at his or her own rate. The remaining $500 is not subject to tax because the child is entitled to a standard deduction of $500.

The purpose of this provision is to prevent the shifting of income from parents to children as a means of having family income taxed at the child's lower rate. Under the law, however, the provision applies regardless of the source of the asset which produces the unearned income to the child.

In the case of divorced or separated parents, the unearned income is taxed to the child at the rate of the custodial parent. If the parents are married but elect to file separately, the income will be taxed to the child at the rate of the parent with the higher marginal tax rates.

University Of Alabama Offers Wide Variety Of High School Correspondence Courses

For some Alabama high school students who think they will not receive a diploma, graduation may only be an envelope and a stamp away.

The Independent Study Division at the University of Alabama offers a wide variety of high school correspondence courses which can apply towards graduation requirements. The program is targeted towards students who lack required credits for numerous reasons including: students in small schools where enrollment limits course offering; students with scheduling difficulties; students who are unable to maintain regular attendance.

Others who want to satisfy college entrance requirements or simply want additional knowledge for personal improvement will also benefit from independent study.

High school courses range from English, math, physical science, and social studies to business education, health, Spanish, and computer education.

An additional benefit to high school students is access to the University of Alabama library which offers resources to supplement required textbooks.

The Independent Study Program is designed for students to complete courses at their own pace. The minimum time for completion is 9 weeks with a maximum time of 52 weeks.

Those who plan to apply credit towards high school graduation must enroll by February to guarantee sufficient time to complete the course.

Students should request current information about independent study from their high school counselors or a free catalogue with complete course descriptions and registration information is available by calling

Piney Woods Arts Festival

Coming In April

The 14th annual Piney Woods Arts Festival, sponsored by the Coffee County Arts Alliance, will be held April 16 and 17 on the campus of Enterprise State Junior College, and Arts Alliance board members are busy preparing for the festival. The Alliance begins to make plans and arrangements after the Christmas holidays. "This is our way of giving back to the community," said Janet Mounts, president, "and saying thank-you for all the support the Arts Alliance receives throughout the year."

Individuals from as far west as Mississippi and Texas are making plans to be represented, as well as West Georgia area residents. Larry Bustin, an engineer for the Mississippi, will be exhibiting his work. In addition to works of art and crafts, there will be separate exhibits of quilts and judged art works of Enterprise junior high and high school art students.

Many special features are presented each day. The Enterprise High School Big Blue Band will begin the entertainment on Saturday, and other acts are scheduled also, including Dune Buggy, the clown. He will circulate throughout the crowd as well as presenting his act.

A Children's Art Market will be featured, whereby pieces of art donated by the exhibitors will be offered to children for a reasonable price. A centralized food pavilion will give people a chance to rest, eat and enjoy hot dogs, drinks, barbecue and cotton candy, as well as a bake sale.

A fun center with games, activities and rides will be available. Times will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, and noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

C.C. Arts Alliance To Sponsor Ballet, March 25th

On Friday, March 25, at 8 p.m. at Enterprise High School the Coffee County Arts Alliance will present the State of Alabama Ballet from Birmingham.

Tickets will be available at the Jewel Box in Elba as well as Plain

'N Fancy & Gallery "2" Enterprise and the ITT Office at Fort Rucker. Advance tickets are available at a savings. The program will include Swan Lake II as well as two other well-known numbers. This is the last offering of the 1987/88 season.

The program is supported in part by a grant from Alabama State Council on the Arts with assistance from the National Endowment for the Arts, a Federal Agency in Washington, D.C.

Three-In-One

Study Club Visits

Governor's Mansion

The Three-In-One Study Club members traveled to Montgomery March 3 and enjoyed a guided tour of the Governor's Mansion.

The official hostess of the mansion, Mrs. Fay Mizzell, assisted by Mrs. Midge Bennett gave a most enjoyable and informative tour of the mansion and grounds. Club membership chairman Mrs. S.F. Carney directed the trip.

The group had their noon meal at the Saraha Restaurant.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. E.M. Warr, Mrs. Pauline Allen, Mrs. Harley Hasty, Mrs. R.H. Lee, Mrs. Fulton Spurin, Mrs. Jim Williams, Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. S.F. Carney, Mrs. Paul Morrow and Mrs. Nellie B. Martin.

A short shopping tour in Montgomery Mall completed the day of fun and pleasure for the group.

Miss Teresa Ann Marler

Miss Marler To Wed Mr. Harrison Friday March 18th

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Marler announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Teresa Ann, to Randy Lane Harrison, son of Mrs. Jeanette Harrison and the late Dolphus Harrison.

Teresa is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Marler and the late Mr. and Mrs. Grady Sullivan. She is a 1987 graduate of Zion Chapel High School and is presently employed by Food World in Enterprise.

Randy is the grandson of Mrs. Nettie Addison and the late Bury Addison and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison. The wedding will be an event of March 18 at six o'clock in the evening at the Victory Tabernacle Church in New Brockton. No formal invitations are being sent. All friends and relatives are invited to attend. Reception will follow in the fellowship hall.

MissionsFest Alabama

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board and the Alabama Baptist Convention are sponsoring a first-of-its-kind regional "MissionsFest Alabama" at Samford University, Birmingham, May 26-28.

A major feature will be the commissioning of 60 missionaries for overseas service.

Attending "MissionsFest Alabama" will be pastors, church leaders and staff members, directors of associational missions, youth and lay persons, and staff members of the Foreign Mission Board.

Planned for May 26 at 4:30 p.m. at Reid Chapel is a dialogue with Foreign Mission Board President R. Keith Parks and Alabama pastors, directors of missions, and their wives. Planned at the same time is a "global walkaround" at Baskins Field House in which participants will meet missionaries in costume; view missionary artifacts, missions video presentations, missions computer games, space visuals, and a population clock.

The evening session, May 26, at Wright Concert Hall will feature a Seibert Gymnasium will feature a missions rally with flag procession; special music; missionary testimonies; and an address by John M. Hinson, special assistant to the president, Foreign Mission Board.

The morning session, May 27 at Wright Concert Hall will feature a 9:00 a.m. convocation address on "Missions: The Bible's Central Theme," by R. Keith Parks. Following at 10:30 a.m. are conferences of missions overseas, the missionary family, foreign mission resources, directions in missions, being a Great Commission church, global evangelization, and overseas missions opportunities.

The conferences will be repeated at 12:00 p.m., 1:30 p.m., and 3:00 p.m.

Another "global walkaround" is scheduled for May 27 beginning at 3:00 p.m.

The commissioning service will be held the night of May 27 at Wright Concert Hall.

Activities include a flag procession by Royal Ambassadors and Alabama pastors, and remarks by Alabama Baptist executive secretary A. Earl Potts and Foreign Mission Board President R. Keith Parks. Special music and the commissioning of 60 missionaries.

Special conferences are set for May 28 only, beginning at 9:00 a.m. They deal with nurturing the future missionary, steps toward missionary appointment, getting involved as a missions volunteer and in special assignment projects; and repeat conferences on being a Great Commission church; and foreign missions resources.

A closing convocation will be held in the Wright Concert Hall at 11:00 a.m.

Persons planning to attend any of the "MissionsFest Alabama" should pre-register through their churches by May 1.

Gospel Sing At Daleville High

Greetings From Faith Chapel

In today's world there are many different denominations - but one church, and that is the Church of Jesus Christ. There is much confusion and author of confusion, but Satan is. (1 Cor. 14:33). "For God is not the author of confusion, but peace, as in all churches of the saints."

We as brothers and sisters in Christ need to realize that this is a tactic of the enemy and he'll do anything to try and destroy the Church. Christians should not persecute and talk about one another, but instead we need to pray for each other and lift each other up before the Lord. (James 1:19). "Wherefore from persecution from sinners, so we as Christians should not persecute and talk about one another, but instead we need to pray for each other and lift each other up before the Lord."

We need to all come together in a spirit of unity. (Psalm 133:1). "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." (Eph. 4:1-6). "I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as we are called in one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all, and in you all."

If we can't love one another and worship together here on earth, then how will we be able to do it when we all get to our eternal home in Heaven? We at Faith Chapel want to stand together as one and bind up the wiles of the enemy. (Matt. 18:18). "Verily I say unto you, whatsoever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven, and whatsoever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven." (John 17:11). "And now I am no more in the world, and I come to these, Father, keep them from the evil one, that they may be one, even as we are one." (John 17:22). "And the glory which you have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one." (John 17:23). "So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and everyone members one of another." (Romans 12:10). "Be kindly affectioned one to another." (1 Peter 4:8). "I pray that our love for each other will grow every day, but most of all our love for our Heavenly Father which is God. So, permit me, if you will, to include you in our love for God. So I will include God's Plan of Salvation here:

GOD'S PLAN FOR SALVATION

There are many articles written in the newspapers, editorials, social events, sports and even religious columns such as our Ministerial Alliance writes in this column each week, but you know I've yet to see us pastors/preachers include God's plan for salvation to a lost and dying world. I'm sure no one intends to leave it out, and some of it is included in each article written by our brethren in the ministry.

I guess we just assume most people already know about God's Plan for Salvation, but if we assume that, then we are mistaken and wrong!

When I recently left the state of Georgia, 55 percent of that entire state's population was either lost without Christ, Jesus or unchurched, and I'm sure it is the same - if not more - in this state. This percentage is getting higher each day, I suspect. So, permit me, if you will, to include you in our love for God. So I will include God's Plan of Salvation here:

Romans 3:23 - We ALL are sinners!

2. Romans 6:23 - The wages of sin is death (spiritual and physical death)

3. Romans 5:12 - If Peter 3:9 - God loves us. He gave His Son, Jesus Christ, to die for us (our sins), to pay sin's (ours) penalty, because He isn't willing that any should perish.

4. Romans 12:2 - He's offered the GIFT (free) - Salvation - to all who will receive it by faith, Eph. 2:8-9.

5. Romans 10:9 - It is to all who will call upon Him and John 1:12 - receive Him.

6. 3:20 - Behold, He is knocking - will you by faith, repent and be saved? The Bible says, "Today is the accepted time, behold now is the day of salvation." Not tomorrow - but today! Tomorrow may be too late for you! Who's Plan for Salvation is for you who will accept, receive and believe it!

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Earl Grice

Danford-Grice Wed At Bethany Baptist Church

Sonya Denise Danford and Johnny Earl Grice were united in marriage on Jan. 30 during a ceremony at Bethany Baptist Church. Rev. Lane Harris officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie J. Danford of Enterprise, and Rev. and Mrs. Bobby W. Grice of Midland City.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of ivory Rachele lace over satin with a sweetheart neckline. Matching lace sleeves were puffed at the shoulders and tapered to the wrists. The long bodice featured a shirred effect to one side then fell to a lace trumpet skirt which was tea-length in front and extended to floor length in back. She wore a shoulder length veil of matching lace which was attached to a headpiece featuring a lace bow.

The bride carried a bridal bouquet consisting of miniature white carnations, ivory carnations, baby's breath and greenery.

Mrs. Kim Gibson attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Stacy Johnson served as bridesmaid. They were matching gowns of wine taffeta with lace overlays.

Steve Grice served his brother as best man. Ronnie Grice, brother of the groom, served as groomsmen. Candlelighters were Ron Danford, brother of the bride, and Tim Gibson, brother-in-law of the bride. Ushers were Mike Reeves and Byron Brunson.

A bride's mother wore a street length dress of peach lustregio with a jacket of crystal pleated chiffon. The groom's mother wore a street length dress of mauve chiffon crepe featuring a pleated skirt and lace collar.

Nuptial music was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Longworth. Songs presented were "My Only Love," "With This Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Rev. Bobby W. Grice, father of the groom, voiced the closing prayer. Guests were registered by Miss Joanne Sellers.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Linda Johns.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Serving were Mrs. Lynn Vick, Mrs. Brenda Reeves, Mrs. Todd Gibson and Mrs. Ronnie Grice.

Following a wedding trip to Disney World, the couple is residing in New Brockton.

PRE-NUPITAL PARTIES

A cookout for the couple and friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Gibson on Jan. 23. Other hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brunson. Approximately 15 couples were in attendance.

The parents of the bride hosted the after-rehearsal supper held in the fellowship hall of Bethany Baptist Church. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Gibson, Mrs. Linda Johns, Mrs. Angie Holley and Mrs. Margaret B. Smith.

Azalea Garden Club Has March Meeting

The Azalea Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Charles Letter on N. Claxton for their March meeting.

Mrs. Pat O'Reilly presided. Mrs. Kasper Anderson presented Mrs. Oliver Williams of Enterprise who lectured and demonstrated the topic, "New Ideas With Old Knowledge of Wreath Making."

She recommended the use of three most used and available vines including kudzu, honeysuckle and grape.

The business part of the meeting followed the demonstration. Mrs. W.W. Cox called the roll and read the minutes. Mrs. Lloyd Crook gave the treasurer's report.

Routine reports were given by standing committees.

The club voted to contribute $100 toward the restoration of the flowing well fountain on Court Square. Recommendations to change annual workshop was approved.

Mrs. V.D. McCreary gave the Garden Hint of the Month on the care and cultivation of camellias.

Mrs. D. Hildreth Cooper served as hostess with Mrs. Letter. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. Kasper Anderson, Mrs. Walter Cox, Mrs. Lloyd Crook, Mrs. Billy Farris, Mrs. T.M. Miller, Mrs. V.D. McCreary, Mrs. Pat O'Reilly, Mrs. Oscar Vaughan Jr., Mrs. Oliver Williams, Mrs. Mayo Prescott, Mrs.

Charlie Zimmerman, Mrs. D. Hildreth Cooper, Mrs. Letter and Mrs. Nellie B. Martin.

4-H NEWS

Angela G. Hughes Associate County Agent

What is 4-H?

I've been made aware of the fact that many people don't know what 4-H is. Four-H is the largest youth organization in the world. There are over 5,000,000 4-H Club members in the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam. Many other countries have youth clubs like 4-H, too.

Alabama has 115,000 4-H members. Coffee County has 1,200 members. The 4-H Club is a part of the Alabama Cooperative Extension Service, a branch of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The purpose of 4-H Club work is to help young people to develop skills; to develop an appreciation for scientific information; to develop leadership and citizenship that will be useful regardless of future occupation; and to discover, develop, and use wisely their individual abilities and talents.

Who Can Be in 4-H?

Any boy or girl between the ages of 9 and 19 can enroll in 4-H. All Coffee County schools and Coppingville in Enterprise have organized 4-H Clubs. Any young person going to school elsewhere may enroll as an individual member. They may get an enrollment card, record sheets, and other information from the County Extension Office in New Brockton.

Projects Available

Each 4-H member must select and carry out at least one project a year that fits his or her needs. Some of the projects to choose from are bicycle care and safety, child care, clothing, dog care and training, fish and wildlife, foods and nutrition (cooking), gardening, health, livestock, photography, public speaking and wood science.

Clubs Available

Other than the organized school clubs, there are some interest groups meeting, also. A craft club meets on the 4th Thursday night each month. A different craft is taught at each meeting. Of course, the best way to learn is by doing so each member has hands-on experience. Mrs. Nancy Culbert leads this club.

A food club meets on the 3rd Tuesday night each month. Mrs. Sharon Walker teaches nutrition, correct measuring techniques as well as food preparation.

Mrs. Cheryl Kelley has organized a 4-H Horse Club. This meets on the 2nd Monday night each month. When school gets out for the summer, activities will be scheduled more frequently.

Four-H is sponsoring a clogging class, beginning March 21. The classes will meet weekly for eight weeks. Anyone interested in this activity is encouraged to attend, whether a 4-H'er or not. This class will be open to all ages, beginning with first grade.

You Are Needed

Adults are needed to organize additional clubs. Any talent that you have could possibly be turned into a 4-H group. If you are interested and willing to give your time as well as your talents to assist our County's greatest resource (young people), please call the Extension Office in New Brockton today, at 894-5596.

Zion Chapel 4-H Club Girls Meet

Fourteen members of the Zion Chapel 4th grade 4-H Club learned more about nutrition at the meeting on Thursday, March 3. Mrs. Hughes, our 4-H leader, brought a picnic basket full of food. As she showed us the items, she explained whether or not it was nutritious, which food group it belonged to, and how to keep it safe to eat.

She gave back our crafts and our posters. The winners of the crafts contest are: first place - Amanda Carnley, second place - Pam Johnson. The winners of the poster contest are: first place - Cindy Langley, second place - Amanda Carnley, third place - Kristy Cole. She told us to bring our record book to our next meeting. She also told us about some contests in April and May.

Steer Show

Jill Smith with a Limousin calf took the top honors at the Coffee County 4-H and FFA Steer Show. Jill won Grand Champion, Jr. Showmanship, and the Native Calf Class.

Jill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Smith of Route 1, New Brockton. The calf was bred by Harold Jones of Route 1, Enterprise.

Other winners were Steven Bozeman of Route 2, Elba, who won Sr. Showmanship. Brett Bryan of Route 2, Elba, won Reserve Champion. Jason McLeod of Route 2, Troy, with a county bred calf from Fred Clark won the Average Daily Gain of 3.44 pounds per day. Having the highest daily gain Jason won the Jeff Dean Memorial Trophy awarded by the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association.

The show was very successful due to the great support of the parents, exhibitors, and sponsors of the show.

Camellia - Tea Scale Problems

Camellias are the main hosts for the most destructive scale found on ornamental plants. The undersides of the leaves become heavily infested. When they are present in very large numbers, they move to the top of the leaves. You will also notice yellow blotches on the top of the leaves, and the undersides will have a white cottony-like appearance. We've seen lots of tea scale damage throughout the county this year. If you have a severe problem, it will take two or three years to bring it under control.

Control these pests with Orthene or Cygon. Make sure you spray the undersides of the leaves. Use a summer oil plus Diazinon spray in early spring and again in the fall to help control this scale problem.

Pea Planting

Plant cool-season crops such as garden peas of English peas early. These crops have a short productive life. They're best suited for gardeners who have plenty of space. Recommended varieties include Little Marvel, Wando and Victory Freezer. Sow seeds two inches in the drill in 34 - to 36 - inch rows. Use a low wire fence, trellis or short limb to support the tall-growing varieties.

Pond Fertilizing

Now's the ideal time to start fertilizing bass and bream ponds. Bream and bass start eating well and growing in late February and early March. Fertilizer makes algae grow, which leads to an increase in fish food production.

Liquid fertilizers are superior to granular fertilizers in promoting rapid growth of algae in farm ponds. This is because nutrients are already in solution, making them more rapidly available to the algae. Also, smaller applications of liquid fertilizers can be used, which may reduce the cost of pond fertilization.

Common grades of liquid ammonium polphosphate fertilizer are 10-34-0 and 11-37-0. Liquid ammonium orthophosphate, commonly sold as a 13-38-0 grade, can also be used. Nutrients are found in a ratio of about 1:3 in liquid fertilizers. Any grade of liquid fertilizer can be used, as long as approximately 3 to 4 pounds of phosphorus as P205 are applied per application.

The following standard fertilization schedule can be used with any of the fertilizers and rates recommended in the fertilization table.

Scott Herrington Wins Science Fair Award

Scott Herrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herrington, and a sixth grader at New Brockton Elementary School, received the national Aeronautics and Space Award given at the District Science Fair held at Troy State University on February 27, 1988.

Scott won in a field on 238 contestants.

Get Slim And Trim

Sandra T. Coffee County Agent

Registration is continuing for Trim and Slim II, the adult weight-reduction program offered through the Coffee County Extension office. This program will begin March 24 at the Extension office in New Brockton and continue for 10 weeks. Day classes will be 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. and night classes will be 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Men and women 18 years of age and older are welcome to take part in Trim and Slim II. Interested persons should call 894-5596 or come to the County Extension office at the Farm Center in New Brockton to register. Many adults who are worried about their weight turn to fat diets. Generally, such diets restrict necessary foods and are often inadequate nutritionally. When you're trying to lose weight, a well-balanced diet with fewer calories is recommended.

The Trim and Slim II program provides well-balanced reducing diets and teaches people how to change their eating habits. A person who wants to lose weight and keep it off must develop new eating habits and new attitudes about food.

Anyone who wants to take part in Trim and Slim II is encouraged to get his/her physician's permission to exercise and follow a well-balanced reducing diet.

A registration fee of $10.00 will cover the cost of educational materials.

TAEKWONDO is for adults and kids. We offer balance, flexibility and proven self-defense techniques. Owner MICHAEL PATRICK, who is a 2nd degree Black Belt, said that Taekwondo means "the way of the hand and foot." It is a self-defense art that deals with kicking, punching and blocking.

Patrick added that self-defense techniques are fairly simple, but effective - such as blocking, punching and kicking. He stresses that the art is for women too.

A lot of women still do not understand what's behind TAEKWONDO - for instance, many still think it is a macho sport, says Patrick. "But," he adds, "it's really something you can get a good aerobic exercise from. Our purpose is not only to pursue strength, but to grow sound young people - contributing to society," says Patrick. He and Don Bowden, 1st degree Black Belts in the dojo (school) teach these character traits.

"You should have known my son before he began taking Karate under Michael," said one mother whose son attends the school. "He's so different now. His grades have come up from C's and D's to A's and B's because Mike won't let them make bad grades and remain in the class."

Chuck Norris popularized the martial arts in the United States, says Patrick, but the more gentle nature of David Carradine as Kane in the Kungfu series made it more acceptable. And "The Karate Kid" brought it to reality. But the real meaning of Karate and the art of self-defense is embodied in men such as Michael Patrick and Don Bowden of Elba.

Views From The Pressbox By, Ricky Mularz

If I look a little sleepy the next time you see me it'll be because every year this time I stay up late trying to watch every single basketball game that's played in the NCAA tournament. I usually go to bed right after Andy Griffith is over, but the tourney only happens once a year and unless the game is mighty boring I'll stick with it until the end.

ELBA TIGERS PUT ON GOOD SHOW IN BLACK AND GOLD GAME

The Elba Tigers wrapped up spring football practice last Friday night with the annual Black and Gold intrasquad game, and as is always the case the Tigers looked good on both sides of the ball. The Black squad was the favorite and supposedly had the better personnel, but the Golds battled until the final horn and really gave it all they had in the 16-8 loss.

It's hard to single out players in an intrasquad game because most of them have to go both ways and try to rest a little at times, but I did jot down a few notes after the game and thought I'd mention the players that caught my eye. On the Black squad running backs Reggie Horstead and Anthony Brooks both had a good night, while quarterback David Rowe looked good running the option and showed flashes of what I'm sure all Tiger fans hope are everyday big plays! In the line Wade Hart, Steve Sauls and Brian Free all seemed to have good games, while on defense Greg Wright picked off a couple of passes and Larry Dixon made some big plays. The hardest licks from the Black defenders seemed to be coming from No. 75 Kelvin Caldwell, a junior tackle who really packs a wallop! The Gold team showed a lot of pride and determination by making the game close in the fourth quarter and Golds on offense that I noticed included quarterback Kevin Matthews, receiver Joe Brooks and especially tailback Tim Caldwell, who showed good speed and real determination with hard running! Over on the defensive side linebacker Audie Fudge had a big game, as did defensive backs Leon Coleman and Kevin Matthews. Chris Grantham and Jackie Stoudemire looked like winners in the line played like the returners they are.

Everybody got to play in the spring game and I'm sure I left off the names of some good players, but all I tried to do was mention the players I noticed the most and praise the entire team for a good game!!!

'88 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE ALREADY CAUSING INTEREST

I talked with a lot of Elba football fans last week and everyone of them was already excited about next year's schedule, especially the opener against the powerful Cottonwood Bears. The schedule is tough, as always, with 5A opponents Opp, Andalusia and Troy doing the schedule, not to mention Area foes such as Laverne (with its best team ever), Rehoboth and Louisville. When you add teams like Cottonwood, Pike County and Daleville to the list you'll see in a hurry that the Tigers have to play the toughest schedule of any team in Class 3A, if not any class.

NCAA TOURNEY PACKED WITH EXCITEMENT

I know that everyone doesn't share my feelings about the upcoming NCAA tournament (I'm even outvoted in my own house), but this year's field seems to be the most wide-open in years and just about any of about 16 teams appears to have a real shot at taking home the top prize. Taking a quick look at the brackets will reveal that Oklahoma, Duke, Purdue, Indiana, Temple, Syracuse, North Carolina, Arizona and Kentucky are tops in their regions and of the teams mentioned it would appear that Kentucky would have the easiest road to the final four. I don't really look for Kentucky to be around when the top teams gather in Kansas City, and I don't think Auburn's got any chance at all, but you never can tell what's going to happen; just look back at North Carolina State a couple years ago and remember LSU making the final four when nobody thought they'd even make it past the first round.

It's a little early to pick my favorite four, but I think the tourney is loaded with potentially dynamic games and I can't wait to see 'em.

IN CLOSING . . .

The baseball season is almost here and if you don't agree just stop by the ballfields any afternoon and you'll see a bunch of little guys going at it as well as the high school team hard at work. The sports scene may be slow at the moment, but hang on - it's getting ready to take off again!

Trent Taylor Named New

Football Coach At Kinston

The Coffee County Board of Education announced Monday night that Trent Taylor had been named as the new head football coach at Kinston High School.

Taylor, a native of Andalusia, quarterbacked Andalusia High School to the state football championship and later graduated from Lurleen B. Wallace Junior College and Mobile College. He served as an assistant basketball coach at Baldwin County High School in Bay Minette.

Taylor will meet with the coaches this week in Kinston and conduct spring training following the AEA holidays.

"We feel very fortunate to be able to get a young man like Trent Taylor to guide our football program at Kinston," stated Kinston principal Lavon Cain. "We had a total of 16 applicants and after thorough research felt that Trent was the man for the job. He worked under some of the finest football coaches in the high school ranks during his early years, and besides being an excellent football coach is a Christian man that will provide valuable leadership to the youth of our community."

Black Edge Gold 16-8 In Elba Spring Football Game

The Elba Tigers concluded spring football practice last Friday night with the annual Black and Gold intrasquad game, and in the contest the Black jumped ahead early and held on to nip the Gold 16-8.

The Black put the ball in play at its 40-yard line following an early defensive stand and began a march toward the Gold endzone. The Black stuck to the ground during the march and behind the running of Anthony Brooks and Reggie Horstead moved to a first-and-goal at the 6-yard line.

The running game had problems after getting close however, and after three running plays netted little yardage, a fourth-down run was stopped cold by Keith Smith and Leon Coleman as the drive came away without any points.

The Black got the ball back late in the opening stanza and again headed toward the Gold goal behind the hard running of Anthony Brooks and Reggie Horstead. The touchdown drive covered 60 yards and was climaxed when Anthony Brooks bulled over from two yards out. Quarterback David Rowe passed to Brian Free for the two-point conversion, and with 7:08 left in the half the Black was on top to stay at 8-0.

A pass interception by Greg Wright on the Gold's first play following the score gave the ball right back to the Black, and once again the Black offense moved down the field for a touchdown!

A 27-yard halfback pass from Reggie Horstead to quarterback David Rowe was a big play in the drive, while the touchdown came on a 9-yard scamper by Reggie Horstead. Horstead also added the two-point conversion, and with 3:49 left in the half the Black had opened up a 16-0 bulge.

The Black squad attempted to add to its lead late in the half and reached the Gold 15-yard line, but Keith Henderson intercepted a pass on the final play of the half to kill the threat, and at intermission the Black owned a solid 16-0 advantage.

The Black received the second half kickoff and began a drive that ate up over 9:00 of the clock. The drive was highlighted by the running of Reggie Horstead and Anthony Brooks and reached the Gold one-yard line, only to be stopped by the Black defense. The Gold offense continued its practice of marching down the field on its next possession and this time drove all the way to the Gold one-yard line, only to be stopped by a fumble that gave the Gold one last breath of hope!

The Gold moved out near mid-field as the clock was winding down, but Greg Wright picked off his second pass of the night only 47 from the end of the game, and the Black held on to post the win.

Reggie Horstead and Anthony Brooks paced the Black offense, while defensive standouts included Greg Wright, Larry Dixon, Wade Hart, Kelvin Caldwell and Rico Hill. Kevin Matthews and Tim Caldwell sparked the Gold offense, while defensive stars included Leon Coleman, Matthews, Audie Fudge, Chris Grantham and Jackie Stoudemire.

Hickman Movers

Win Softball

Tourney In Florida

The Hickman Moving and Storage softball team opened its tournament season last weekend in Milton, Fla., and brought home the championship trophy.

Hickman opened the 14-team event with a 15-14 win over Westinghouse of Pensacola, and followed it up with wins over Hick's 8-7 and Doc's of Pensacola, 24-8, to reach the finals. In the finals Hickman nipped Mobile powerhouse BeAir Mall 13-12 to take the "first-place honors."

Hickman's Rachel Moore got 9 hits in 13 at-bats and hit 2 home runs to earn Most Valuable Player honors in the event, while other leaders for the Elba squad included Glenn Filipowski (12-16, 1 homer), Tim Williamson (8-14, 4 homers), Van Johnson (6-12, 3 homers) and Mike Carney (7-13).

The Hickman Moving and Storage team will compete in the Elba softball league this summer.

Elba Umpires To Meet March 20

Safety Rules For Turkey Hunters

Alabama Game and Fish staff want hunters to enjoy a safe and successful turkey season (March 19-April 30 in certain Alabama counties). To help hunters make the most of the season, Hunter Education coordinators think and act defensively. Avoid all unnecessary movement. Remember, you are visible to both turkeys and hunters when you move even slightly. Sitting perfectly still will help you harvest more turkeys than all the camouflage you can wear.

8. Never shoot at a sound or movement. Be 100 percent certain of your target before you pull the trigger.

10. When turkey hunting, assume that every sound you hear is made by another hunter. Once you pull the trigger, you can never call that shot back!

11. Practicing these ten commandments of turkey hunting can help hunters enjoy a safe, successful season. Thornhill says, "The most important 'commandments' are number nine: 'Never shoot at a sound or movement,' and number ten: 'Assume that every sound you hear is made by another hunter. Once you pull the trigger, you can never call that shot back.'"

Senior Citizens Of Cordelia Street Meet

Even though the weather was rainy and dreary when the members of the Senior Citizens of Cordelia Street met for their weekly meeting at the HRDC building on Simmons Street there was no dreariness inside.

Many of our members were out with colds and flu, but several of our sick were with us again. Mr. Ed Gullion was good enough to send us our professional leathercraft, Mr. Weyman Snipes.

Leathercraft classes will expand in the next several weeks. HRDC classes of Leathercraft will be held 2 nights each week. Time and date will be announced. Weyman Snipes, professional leathercraft, will be teaching classes from basic leathercraft to advanced leathercraft.

Public participation in these classes is invited. All age groups will be welcome. For more information call 897-2667. There are no charges for the Leathercraft classes.

Several members finished projects under Mr. Snipes' directions. Of course, news was exchanged before a delicious lunch which was served to the following: Dixie Mae Maddox, Mary Longfellow, Bill Blair, Marie Henderson, Grace Goodson, Arthur Blackman, Zaid Bouyer, Helen MacCahan, Joanne Eddins, Peggy James, Sarah Smith, Weyman Snipes, Mark Foley, M. Boling and Wanda Sasser.

Members of the Senior Citizens of Cordelia Street met for their weekly meeting on March 10 at the HRDC Building on Simmons Street.

This cool weather lets us know it isn't quite Spring yet. Some of our members who had been out for sometime were with us again. Several children were with us and they were enjoyed by all.

Mr. Snipes returned to help us with our leathercrafts. He is an unusual teacher, so thoughtful and patient. I know people will be glad when we can start our next classes, and hope the public will join us in our crafts. Mr. Ed Gullion has been good enough to let us have Mr. Snipes for an instructor.

Of course a delicious lunch was served to the following: Jean Maudlin, Rushie Blanton, Myrl Burket, Mary Longfellow, Dixie Mae Maddox, Frank and Lennie McCollough, Frances Shabo, Grace Goodson, Zaid Bouyer, Helen MacCahan, Anne Pearl Carpenter, Brittany Daniels, Arthur Blackman and Marie Henderson, Odell Reeves.

She is a member of the National Honor Society, Who's Who Among American High School Students, is a member of several campus clubs, as well as civic.

In the pageant competition she was the judges' interview and was an alternate in the Houston County pageant, and a first alternate in the 1988 Azalea-Dogwood pageant.

Semi-finalists In Alabama Rural Electric

Essay Competition Awarded Trip

Ten semi-finalists from Elba High School were awarded a trip to Alabama Electric Cooperative headquarters and the Lowman Power Plant in Andalusia for their achievement in the Washington Youth Tour Essay competition.

On the trip students were acquainted with the operations of an electric cooperative, careers in cooperatives, and the difficulties in generating the electricity needed by everyone.

For the past seven years AEC has provided a week-long expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. for students located in the co-ops four area municipalities, which includes Andalusia, Elba, Opp, and Pike County High School students.

To qualify for the youth tour program students must write an essay or short story on rural-electricification.

The 10 first round finalists of Elba High School include - Brett

Round And About With Eria

897-2006

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up;
A time to weep and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep and a time to cast away; a time to rejoice and a time to weep; a time to sing and a time to keep silence and a time to speak;
A time to love and a time to hate;
a time of war and a time of peace.
What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboreth? I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. Ecd. 3:1-10

TWO PRAYERS

Last night my little boy confessed to me
Some childish wrong;
And kneeling at my knee,
He prayed with tears
"Dear God, make me a man
Like Daddy - wise and strong;
I know you can
Then while he slept
I knelt beside his bed,
Confessed my sin,
And prayed with low-bowed head,
Oh God, make me a child,
Like my child here,
Pure, guileless,
Trusting Thee with faith sincere."

JOHN E. (Ben) FOLMAR

John Folmar Is Recipient Of Award

Millbrook Lodge #377, Opp, Ala., presented John E. (Ben) Folmar of Elba an award for outstanding service in the community and leadership in farming in the area.

During Black History Month,
February, 1988, a program honoring Ben was held at the Nazareth Baptist Church of Opp.

Ben has been farming for 53 years and is known for his outstanding peanut, corn and cotton crops.
He and his wife Helen are the parents of two children: Helen Sue Barnes, Montezuma, Ga., who is employed with the Macon County Board of Education, and Johnny Folmar, who is employed in Dothan
-he and his wife Angela reside in Elba.

Ben and Helen have two grandchildren: Melissa Barnes and Timothy Caldwell Folmar.

Ben is a member of Bethlehem
Baptist Church, Elba, Rev. G.C.
Thomas, pastor. He is a deacon, president of the Lister Union,
chairman of the church's Trustee Board and superintendent of the Sunday School. Previously he was presented an award for 28 years of faithful, devoted and valuable service as Sunday School superintendent of Bethlehem Baptist.

Helen is a member of Bethlehem Baptist, a deaconess, counselor for the Bethlehem Young Adult Choir and secretary of Senior Mission, and an employee of Kleinfelt's in Elba.

Friday night, March 11, I was sitting in the home of Ben and Helen and we were talking about how farming was really hard work years ago. All farm work now is done by machine - no more durs pricking your fingers; no more backaches from bending to pick cotton - and no more sore arms from throwing peanuts on the stack poles after shaking the vines with your hands or using a pitchfork. Ben says it was rough "back then" - but that was the way it was.

"Ben, what or who encouraged you to far?"

"Farming was all the type work I knew years ago, even though I was an employee of Dorsey Trailers and Opp Cotton Mill for some time. Yet I really had farming in view as a vocation. And I give my mother the credit for telling me and encouraging me to farm because it is an honorable work (and work it is!)."
(Do you suppose farming is in his blood?)

"Ben, I've been reading that corn was your specialty, even though you had cotton, peanuts, sugar cane, a garden (which was Helen's 'I'm sure'), hogs and cows. Didn't you need help?"

"Yes, I have help. Helen is my
--(Helen says business manager!)"

When asked for remarks during the program, Ben said "It was prayer and working hard that got me started. It was prayer that brought me thus far. Sister, I know prayer will keep me going."

He is a man who is loved and admired by his family and friends.

Mr. Folmar, you have been given and still receiving your "flowers" while you yet live. You are qualified for the task at hand. With the support, encouragement, love for God and your fellowman, you will continue to prosper. Congratulations for your achievements and God bless you!

***Triumph The Church and Kingdom of God In Christ, Taylor Mill

Coffee County man charged in death of seven-year-old youth

BARN FIRE KEEPS FIREFIGHTERS BUSY... What began as a barn fire on County Road 21 last Tuesday afternoon, March 15, turned into a blazing woods fire with the aid of a tricky wind and kept area firefighters busy for hours as they attempted to extinguish the quickly spreading fire. A paved road helped stop the blaze on one side, but it took the skill and determination of firemen to put the fire out prior to nightfall.

A Coffee County Grand Jury is scheduled to convene this week to hear evidence in connection with the death of a seven-year-old Enterprise youth whose body was discovered in a thicket of bushes on a vacant lot last week in Enterprise.

According to officials in the Coffee County District Attorney's office, William Thomas Horstead, of the Shiloh Community, was arrested last week and charged with capital murder in connection with the strangulation death of Antonio Jermaine Brundage, whose body was discovered on March 13. The mother of the youth reported her son missing on Saturday night, March 12 and told authorities that when she last saw her son he was in the presence of Horstead, who is reported to be a friend of the family. The body was found following a search in the neighborhood.

Two warrants were filed against Horstead in connection with the case, with the first warrant dealing with interference with custody.

The first warrant reportedly involved the act of taking or enticing a minor from his parents, guardian or other legal custodian.

The second, two-count warrant, charged Horstead with capital murder. In this warrant, Horstead is charged with causing the boy's death while committing the act of sodomy and in the second count it is charged that the boy's death was caused while the accused was allegedly engaged or attempting to engage in sexual contact.

Horstead is being held without bond at an undisclosed location.

Grand Jury returns 8 indictments against recent escapee from county

An inmate at the Coffee County Jail who escaped on Feb. 23 after overpowering a female jailer was indicted on a total of eight counts last week by a Coffee County Grand Jury, in Elba.

John Andrew Warren, age 31, was indicted on charges of first degree escape, first degree kidnapping, two counts of first degree robbery, two counts of first degree rape and two counts of first degree sodomy.

Warren escaped from the Coffee County Jail, in Elba, on Feb. 23 and according to reports by Coffee County Sheriff Brice Paul came to the front of the jail at approximately 3:30 a.m. the morning of the escape.

Warren allegedly placed a sharp object at the neck of the jailer and after leaving the actual facility forced the jailer to use her car in the escape.

The jailer was reportedly sexually assaulted by the inmate after the jailer was forced to drive to a wooded area. The jailer was released in Barbour County, near Ardon and the escapee was later recaptured at a residence in Ozark.

Warren is presently being held in the Houston County Jail under $250,000 bond.

Ft. Rucker & FBI

offering $3,000

reward in case

The Ft. Rucker Criminal Investigation Division (CID) and the FBI are offering a reward of up to $3,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of suspect(s) involved in two sexual assaults that occurred there in 1987.

The assaults occurred during the nights of April 24, and Sept. 25, in government quarters in the Allen Heights housing area while the two victims' husbands were at work, according to CID officials.

It is not known if these assaults were committed by the same person; however, any information concerning these assaults should be reported to the Ft. Rucker CID Office at 255-3108, 255-5412, or 255-4435. The reward offer expires Feb. 19, 1988.

Video tapes are valuable tools for Human Resource agency

The popularity of video tapes has exploded in recent years, and while the uses of the tapes are many and range from instructional to simply entertainment, the Coffee County Dept. of Human Resources has compiled a video library that serves as both a training tool for department employees and a source of information to area civic organizations.

"The workers involved in the service units in the department can relate better to the video presentations by viewing actual cases than by simply sitting down and reading what experts say is the right way to act," stated Service Unit supervisor Cathie Hansen.

"The actual viewing of cases and the methods used are valuable aids to the workers and give them the confidence that what they are doing is an accepted method. The video can be used at any time by any employee and that makes it easier for the employees to view the tapes at their leisure."

"When the state holds workshops, many times the employees are tied up for days and their work goes undone or is passed to a fellow employee, but through the use of the video the employees can even take the tapes home and view them whenever they want. The video tapes in the county department library are making our jobs easier and making our employees more professional."

"Some of the best teaching available is through the use of the video tapes," stated county director Ronald Smith. "The staff members are able to view the methods used by some of the leading psychologists in the nation and the world. It is always helpful whenever a member of the staff attends a workshop; however, this library of tapes makes the workshops available to all employees seven days a week!"

"The training available through the video can't be underestimated. If a well-trained employee can become more effective through the use of the tapes it means the entire department will benefit and at the same time the videos provide a means of saving funds needed for other purposes. Use of the videos prevents constant out-of-department training and through this money is saved that is needed."

Video tapes housed in the library include Sexual Abuse - The Family; Working Together; The Battered Child - Page 1; The Battered Child - Page 2; The Interview; Investigating Cases of Child Abuse; Presenting The Case; Abusive Parents; Barb; Breaking the Cycle of Child Abuse; Listening To Kids; Strong Kids; Safe Kids; How Can I Tell If I'm Really In Love?; Drug-Free Kids; AIDS and the American Family; and State Office Foster Care.

"The videos deal with protective services and the tapes are primarily a training tool," stated Smith, "but many of them carry an important message to young adults and the entire community. The tapes are shown to many students by members of the staff here at the county department, and after they are viewed a question-and-answer session is held to give the students a chance to express their views on what they have seen." Coffee County is the only county in the state with such a large video library and the ability to use the tapes as thoroughly in the field of training, a fact Smith reluctantly admits.

O-plus dialing available in Elba

GTE customers in Elba are now offered the convenience of 0-plus dialing.

Customers are able to initiate calling card calls, collect calls and calls charged to another number by dialing 0 and then the number.

"This simplifies the calling process," said Allen W. McCook, GTE's General Manager in Alabama.

"For the customer, 0-plus dialing is a service enhancement that can be directly attributed to deregulation in the telecommunications industry."

In addition to the convenience of 0-plus direct dialing, customers will now be able to direct dial international calls by dialing 011 plus the international number.

Any questions about 0-plus dialing may be referred to the local GTE Customer Service Manager. In Ozark that number is 774-2222.

A look at the agenda revealed that the tour will be in Coffee County on April 14 and will arrive in Elba at 2:30 p.m. and depart the city at 3:00.

Elba included on SEARP & DC tour in April

The Southeast Alabama Regional Planning & Development Commission has announced that industrial developers from across the southeast will tour southeast Alabama during the first two weeks of April.

The tour will start in Dothan and includes stops in Barbour, Coffee, Dale, Covington, Geneva, Henry and Houston counties and the developers will have the opportunity to visit industrial sites and existing industries and meet with local officials.

Of the developers planning to attend the tour, 40 are from outside Alabama and those on the tour represent utility companies, financial institutions, engineering firms and construction companies.

Traffic fatalities rise in 1987 on rural roadways across state

Preliminary figures show traffic fatalities on Alabama's rural roadways rose 11% in 1987, compared with 1986, according to Col. Thomas Wells, Director of the Department of Public Safety. Rural accidents claimed 690 lives in 1986, compared to 769 in 1987.

Wells stated that the largest increase in rural fatalities was higher recorded on U.S. and state highways, up 18%, from 322 to 389 from the previous year.

Fatalities dropped on rural interstates; however, declining from 73 to 59, a drop of 23%.

Traffic fatalities on county roads rose from 295 to 321, an increase of 9%.

Wells stated that most accidents are caused by driver error or inattention and that the incidence of fatal accidents increases with higher speeds. He also stated that 33% of all traffic fatalities were alcohol related.
